T W A R D S.

DUTY.

This duty is payable, over and above all other duties, upon all goods and merchandizes liable to the Subsidy Outwards, exported from any port of Great Britain, capable of a ship or veſſel of 20 tons upon an ordinary full ſea, to any part or place of the Mediterranean ſea beyond the port of Malaga, in any ſhip or veſſel that hath not two decks and doth carry leſs than 16 pieces of ordnance mounted, together with two men for each gun, and other ammunition proportionable.

The amount of this duty is as follows:

	£.	s.	d.	20ths
For every twenty ſhillings of the rate or value of all goods liable to the Subſidy Outwards	0	0	2	10 $\frac{2}{5}$

The One per Cent. duty being payable over and above all other duties under the particular circumſtances of importation and exportation before mentioned, could not, conſiſtent with the ſize of the page, be explained in the courſe of the Rates; it was therefore thought neceſſary, that the account of this duty ſhould precede the general work.

RATES of GOODS and MERCHANDIZE

But by 7 Ann. cap. 8. all Drugs, of the growth and product of America, imported from any of the Britiſh Plantations in America, in ſhips legally navigated, are to pay duty as if imported directly from the place of their growth.

And by 21 Geo. III. cap 26. Drugs, which have heretofore uſually been imported from Turkey, or Egypt, or any of the dominions of the Grand Signior within the Levant Seas, may be imported by perſons free of the Turkey Company, from any port or place whatſoever, in any Britiſh ſhip, or in any ſhip belonging to any ſtate in amity with His Majeſty, on payment only of ſuch duties as would have been due, had the ſame been imported directly from the place of their growth in Britiſh-built ſhips, the Aliens duty when imported in foreign ſhips excepted.

And all other Drugs of the growth, product, or manufacture, of any place or country within the Streights or Levant Seas, which have heretofore uſually been imported from any port or place in Europe within the Streights of Gibraltar, may be imported by any perſon from any place not within the dominions of the Grand Signior, in any Britiſh ſhip, or in any ſhip belonging to any ſtate in amity with His Majeſty, on payment of ſuch duties as they would have been liable to if imported in Britiſh-built ſhips directly from the place of their growth. This Act is to continue in force during the preſent hoſtilities with France, Spain, or the States General of the United Provinces, or either of them.

DRUGS, rated by 12 Car. II. cap. 4. having been imported by Aliens, directly from the place of their growth, in Britiſh-built ſhips, drawback more for every 20 s. of their rate.
